Wildstar Wranglers Ride Again

This fall, Horse SenseAbility collaborated with the T22 Young Adult Residential Program at the Ivy Street School in Brookline to once again offer Wildstar Wranglers. Designed to help young adults transition from school to the workplace, Wildstar Wranglers teaches participants basic job skills required in any work setting, such as showing up on time, following directions, checking your work, accepting and giving feedback and communicating effectively with co-workers and supervisors.

USEF Visits Horse SenseAbility

On November 7th, we were proud to host Mikhail Proctor from the US Equestrian Federation for the afternoon.

As the Director of Membership, DEI, & Development, Mikhail oversees the Community Outreach Program of which Horse SenseAbility is a member.

Mikhail's photos, videos and interviews will appear on USEF's Facebook page and in an upcoming newsletter.
