Horse SenseAbility News

NOVEMBER 2026

Once again, we had a successful and spirited Halloween Horse Show!

Sign Up Now for Winter Term

After a cold and snowy start to 2026, we've decided to offer unmounted horsemanship lessons only this coming winter (January and February).

If your child is interested and doesn't mind chilly weather, we'd love to have them join us! On extremely cold days, we can also bring Hugo into our viewing room to provide a horse experience in a heated space.

If your child would rather skip the winter but wants to return for the Spring Term, you can put down a nonrefundable $150 fee to hold their spot until March.

Please let us know what you want to do by Thanksgiving, 11/26 by emailing Sarah at sc@horsesenseability.org or filling out this form.

Special Olympics Debut

On Sunday, October 18th, Coach Audrey accompanied Kristin Phillips and Zoey Klein to the Special Olympics at Briggs Stable in Hanover, MA.

They had a great time and brought home multiple ribbons from their first ever competition!

Hot Off the Press

Wish you could be with your friends at the barn everyday? Our 2027

Cozy Reading

Here are our November book recommendations:

- Younger Children: Autumn Glory: The New Horse (Pippa Funnell)
- Older Children: Autumn Trail (Bonnie Bryant)

Have a favorite horse book or show? We'd love to hear about it! Email its title to Sarah at sc@horsesenseability.org.

Do you know that we have a big bin in the barn aisle that's full of free books about horses for every age?

Feel free to take and keep your pick!
